A DIRECTORY OF SOUTH CAROLINA WRITERS, SMALL PRESSES, AND LITERARY MAGAZINES

HOW TO USE THIS DIRECTORY

A Directory of South Carolina Writers, Small Presses, and Literary Magazines is organized in alphabetical order, with all writers listed first, followed by small presses and literary magazines.

Each writer's entry includes the following information: name, address, phone number(s), type of writing each person writes, and a listing of not more than a total of ten books published by the author and/or publications in which the author's work has appeared.

The type of writing each author writes is listed according to symbol, flush-right beside the author's name. There are six symbols.

F - fiction
CNF - creative non-fiction
PW - playwriting
P - poetry
CL - children's literature
PP - performance poetry

The Directory is intended to be used as a communications tool to help writers find each other and to help programming organizations find writers.

An updated edition of A Directory of South Carolina Writers, Small Presses, and Literary Magazines is scheduled for publication in 1988. If you were not included in this edition and wish to be included in the next one, or if you wish to have your name added to our Literary Arts mailing list, write The South Carolina Arts Commission, 1800 Gervais Street, Columbia, South Carolina 29201.

The data for this directory was collected by questionnaire, sent by Key Publications and published by The South Carolina Arts Commission. Reproduction of this material without the permission of the publisher, or use of this material for any purpose other than that for which it is intended is strictly prohibited.

The directory was intended to be a listing of creative writers in South Carolina, which is why the six categories were included on the questionnaire. If no categories were checked, Key Publications attempted to contact the writer by letter and telephone. If Key Publications was unable to contact the writer, he or she was omitted from the directory.
